Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

GOD REVEALED TO THE NATIONS

What wonderful images we have today of the reign of God! Isaiah speaks to us of a great feast—a heavenly feast—a feast of abundance with rich foods and choice wines. It is the Lord's own affair, Isaiah explains, when God will unite all nations, dry every tear, and destroy death forever. Then, too, will the entire earth rejoice in the Lord and bask in God's saving grace.

Jesus speaks of heaven in terms of a feast as well. Here, the kingdom of heaven is likened to a king's wedding feast given for his son. This is a feast of abundance also, with the fattened cattle prepared just so. But many of the people invited don't want to come, so the king invites anyone who would honor his son by their presence there. And Paul tells us that whether we live abundantly or in humble circumstances, we can do all things in the Lord who strengthens us.

SAINT TERESA OF JESUS (1515-1582)

October 15

Let nothing disturb you; let nothing frighten you. Gifted with a passionate spirit, young Teresa dreamed of converting Muslims and becoming a martyr. All things are passing; God never changes. But her mother's death when Teresa was fourteen inspired lifelong devotion to Our Lady, and Teresa entered the Carmelites, Mary's order, despite her father's objections and her own fragile health. Patience gains everything. Initially, she enjoyed her lax convent's sociability and "busyness," but mystical prayer and John of the Cross's collaboration inspired her to reform the Carmelites. Whoever has God, lacks nothing. When her ideals encountered resistance and brought suffering, she maintained her peace—and humor. Discovered devouring leftovers, she told her mildly scandalized nuns, "When I fast, I fast! When I eat, I eat!" To nuns demanding less work and more prayer in the convent schedule, she retorted: "What we really need around here are fewer starry eyes and more strong arms!" God alone is enough! The italicized sentences here are her "Breviary Bookmark," the simple, profound prayer of Teresa, the first woman Doctor of the Church.

Vigésimo Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

DIOS SE REVELA A LAS NACIONES

¡Qué maravillosas imágenes tenemos hoy del Reino de Dios! Isaías nos habla de un gran banquete —un banquete celestial— una fiesta con abundancia de platillos succulentos y vinos exquisitos. Es una celebración del mismo Señor, explica Isaías, cuando Dios unirá a todas las naciones, secará toda lágrima, y destruirá la muerte para siempre. Entonces, también, la tierra entera se regocijará en el Señor y se deleitará en la gracia salvadora de Dios.

Jesús, asimismo, habla del Cielo en términos de una fiesta. Aquí, el Reino de los cielos es como el banquete de bodas que el rey ofrece para su hijo. Es también un festín de abundancia, donde ofrece terneros gordos. Pero muchos de los invitados no quieren asistir, así que el rey invita a cualquiera que quiera honrar a su hijo con su presencia. Y Pablo nos dice que sea que vivamos en la abundancia o en circunstancias humildes, todo lo podemos en el Señor que nos fortalece.

SANTA TERESA DE ÁVILA (1515-1582)

15 de octubre

Teresa nació en Ávila, España, en una familia rica y de fe profunda. A los siete años quería ser mártir por amor a Dios. No obstante, a los 12 soñaba con el amor y el romance para su vida, pero unos años después, la muerte de su madre y una enfermedad le hicieron cambiar. A los 20 años se hizo carmelita y 18 años después, debido a la comodidad de la vida de monasterio, apoyada en una visión mística, consideró necesaria una reforma. Bajo la llamada de Dios y la ayuda de su director espiritual, san Juan de la Cruz, junto con otras dieciséis hermanas emprendió la reforma de la Orden Carmelita formando una comunidad más estricta en la que se vivía en absoluta pobreza, se comía del trabajo fruto de la costura, se vivía en oración y se dormía en petates. Siendo superiora fue inigualable en el amor y el servicio a la comunidad. Sus escritos, así como su experiencia mística, fueron profundos. Para ella, "sólo Dios basta", nada más. Fue la primera mujer en ser declarada Doctora de la Iglesia.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

October 1, 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Today, I have some important but difficult news to share with you. Earlier this morning, the Diocese of Rockville Centre has filed a voluntary petition for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. This decision was not made lightly. However, in the year since the passage of the Child Victims Act, more than 200 lawsuits alleging sexual abuse have been filed against the Diocese of Rockville Centre. What became clear is that the Diocese could not continue to carry out its spiritual, charitable and educational missions while also having to shoulder the increasingly heavy burden of litigation expenses associated with these cases.

Filing for Chapter 11, we believe, is the only way for the Diocese to ensure a fair and equitable outcome for everyone involved. That is because the bankruptcy court will centralize all litigation and oversee a settlement that ensures that no survivor is left out or gets unfair compensation at the expense of another survivor.

During this period of restructuring, most Diocesan operations and ministries will continue without interruption. We anticipate that current and future financial liquidity will be sufficient to fund normal operations and services during this restructuring process. Our employees will be paid their normal wages. Benefit programs will continue, uninterrupted. Our vendors will be paid for all goods and services after filing, and ordinary operations will continue as before.

We know that most people experience the life of the Church through their parish, so it is important to note that the good work of our parishes and Catholic schools is expected to continue as normal. Since the parishes and schools of the Diocese of Rockville Centre are separate legal entities, they are not included in this Chapter 11 filing. But it is also the case that after Chapter 11, the Diocese will have fewer financial resources to help struggling schools and parishes.

I also would like to stress that the practice of our Catholic Faith and administration of the sacraments continues just as it has and will not be affected by this legal filing. It is my hope and prayer that operations will be unaffected during the restructuring process as we work to maintain the stability of our many ministries. We will certainly need to prioritize the charitable missions that are essential to Long Island, but the work of the Church must continue. Catholic evangelization must and will continue.

We know that this is hard for people across the Diocese to digest and especially difficult for the many people of Long Island, both Catholic and non-Catholic, who depend on the Church in so many ways. Parishioners will certainly have many questions, so it is important for everyone to understand what this decision means, to avoid any misconceptions

A settlement will be determined based on the assets of the Diocese and will not include any parish offertory donations collected during Mass or any contributions to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Our financial and legal advisors are maximizing the availability of insurance coverage and investment proceeds. It is important to note that in bankruptcy, all assets of the Diocese are part of the court record and therefore publicly available and that the process is completely transparent. All public information relating to the filing can be found on a dedicated Chapter 11 website, which can be found by clicking on the Chapter 11 icon found on the diocesan website at www.drvc.org.

For the Diocese, fair and equitable treatment for survivors of sexual abuse has always been a top priority. That is why we created the Independent Reconciliation and Compensation Program in 2017. Since then, the program has assisted approximately 350 survivors of sexual abuse. But that program also has greatly depleted our financial resources, leaving us with fewer resources to be able to litigate the CVA cases.

Over the last year, our advisors have studied our financial and legal situation extensively and concluded that a Chapter 11 filing was the only way to ensure an equitable settlement for abuse survivors, help us manage litigation expenses and carry out our essential mission and ministries.

We will work diligently with all survivors, creditors and ministries to maintain open communication while we work toward our goal of completing a settlement and a restructuring plan that includes a comprehensive resolution for those suffering survivors. Our Diocese underwent extensive reforms in 2003 with the creation of our Office for the Protection of Children and Young People. We will continue to be vigilant in our commitment to child protection.

I ask each and every Catholic on Long Island during these painful times to embrace the power of the Cross of Jesus Christ and His Divine Mercy, and to help others carry their crosses, especially survivors of clergy sexual abuse. Together, we ask for the intercession of our Blessed Mother Mary, Mother of the Church, that she continue to intercede for a spirit of holiness and mission in this Diocese and the raising up of a new generation of saints on Long Island to serve the Church and the world. All of us, as members of the faithful, are called to find strength in the Word of God and the Sacraments and to live Christ's spirit of humility, charity, compassion, sensitivity and courage. We ask for the intercession of our patroness, the courageous martyr Saint Agnes, for the fortitude to joyfully and charitably proclaim the Gospel and the Splendor of Truth in every public square.

Please know that I am praying for each and every one of you and your families and in a special way for the survivors of clergy sexual abuse. I also pray that through this restructuring process, the Diocese can emerge stronger, having resolved these issues with dignity and fairness and put everyone in a better position to move forward and heal.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

1 de octubre de 2020

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Hoy tengo una importante pero difícil noticia que quiero compartir con ustedes. Más temprano esta mañana, la Diócesis de Rockville Centre ha presentado una petición voluntaria de reorganización al amparo del Capítulo 11 del código de Bancarrota de los Estados Unidos. Esta decisión no se tomó a la ligera. Sin embargo, en el año transcurrido desde la aprobación de la Ley de víctimas infantiles, se han presentado más de 200 demandas por presuntos abusos sexuales contra la Diócesis de Rockville Centre. Lo que quedó en evidencia es que la Diócesis no podía seguir llevando a cabo sus misiones espirituales, caritativas y educativas y, al mismo tiempo, tener que asumir la carga cada vez más pesada de los gastos que demandan los litigios asociados a estos casos.

Al acogernos al Capítulo 11, creemos que es la única manera de que la Diócesis garantice un resultado justo y equitativo para todos los involucrados. Esto se debe a que el Tribunal de Quiebras centralizará todos los litigios y supervisará un acuerdo que garantice que ningún sobreviviente quede excluido o reciba una compensación injusta a expensas de otro superviviente.

Durante este período de reestructuración, la mayoría de las operaciones y ministerios diocesanos continuarán funcionando sin interrupción. Prevemos que la liquidez financiera actual y futura será suficiente para financiar las operaciones y servicios normales durante este proceso de reestructuración. Nuestros empleados recibirán su salario normal. Los programas de beneficios continuarán, sin interrupción. A nuestros proveedores se les pagará por todos los bienes y servicios después de habernos acogido al Capítulo 11, y las operaciones ordinarias continuarán como antes.

Sabemos que la mayoría de las personas experimentan la vida de la Iglesia a través de su parroquia, por lo que es importante resaltar que se espera que el buen trabajo de nuestras parroquias y escuelas católicas continúe con normalidad. Dado que las parroquias y escuelas de la Diócesis de Rockville Centre son entidades legales independientes, no están incluidas en esta petición para acogerse al capítulo 11. Pero también es cierto que después del Capítulo 11, la Diócesis tendrá menos recursos financieros para ayudar a las escuelas y parroquias en dificultades. También me gustaría recalcar que la práctica de nuestra Fé Católica y la administración de los sacramentos continúan tal como ha sido y no serán afectadas por esta petición legal. Espero y oro para que las operaciones no se vean afectadas durante el proceso de reestructuración mientras trabajamos para mantener la estabilidad de nuestra gran cantidad de ministerios. Ciertamente tendremos que priorizar las misiones caritativas que son esenciales para Long Island, pero el trabajo de la Iglesia debe continuar. La evangelización católica debe continuar y continuará.

Sabemos que esto es difícil de asimilar por parte de las personas de toda la Diócesis y especialmente difícil para las muchas personas de Long Island, tanto católicas como no católicas, que dependen de la Iglesia de muchas maneras. Los feligreses tendrán sin duda muchas preguntas, así que es importante que todos entiendan lo que esta decisión significa, para evitar cualquier malentendido

El acuerdo se determinará con base en los activos de la Diócesis y no incluirá ninguna donación de ofrendas parroquiales recaudadas durante la misa ni ninguna contribución a la Campaña de Ministerios Católicos. Nuestros asesores financieros y jurídicos están maximizando la disponibilidad de la cobertura de seguros y los ingresos de las inversiones. Es importante señalar que, en la quiebra, todos los bienes de la Diócesis forman parte del registro del tribunal y por lo tanto están disponibles públicamente y que el proceso es completamente transparente. Toda la información pública relacionada con la petición se puede encontrar en un sitio web dedicado al Capítulo 11, que se puede encontrar haciendo clic en el icono del Capítulo 11 que se encuentra en el sitio web de la Diócesis en www.drvc.org.

Para la Diócesis, el tratamiento justo y equitativo de los sobrevivientes de abusos sexuales siempre ha sido una prioridad fundamental. Por eso creamos el Programa de Reconciliación y Compensación Independiente en 2017. Desde entonces, el programa ha ayudado a aproximadamente 350 sobrevivientes de abuso sexual. Pero ese programa también ha agotado en gran medida nuestros recursos financieros, y nos ha dejado con menos recursos para poder litigar los casos de la Ley de víctimas infantiles (CVA).

Durante el último año, nuestros asesores han estudiado exhaustivamente nuestra situación financiera y legal, y concluyeron que acogernos al Capítulo 11 era la única manera de garantizar un acuerdo equitativo para los sobrevivientes de abusos, ayudarnos a gestionar los gastos de los litigios y llevar a cabo nuestra misión y ministerios esenciales.

Trabajaremos diligentemente con todos los sobrevivientes, acreedores y ministerios para mantener una comunicación abierta mientras trabajamos hacia nuestro objetivo de llegar a un acuerdo y un plan de reestructuración que incluya una resolución integral para aquellos sobrevivientes damnificados. Nuestra Diócesis experimentó profundas reformas en 2003 con la creación de nuestra Oficina para la Protección de los Niños y los Jóvenes. Seguiremos velando por nuestro compromiso con la protección de los niños.

Les pido a todos y a cada uno de los católicos de Long Island que durante estos tiempos aciagos abracen el poder de la Cruz de Jesucristo y su Divina Misericordia, y que ayuden a otros a llevar sus cruces, especialmente a los sobrevivientes del abuso sexual del clero. Juntos, pedimos la intercesión de nuestra Bendita Madre María, Madre de la Iglesia, para que continúe intercediendo por un espíritu de santidad y misión en esta Diócesis y por la elevación de una nueva generación de santos en Long Island para servir a la Iglesia y al mundo. Todos nosotros, como miembros de la fe, estamos llamados a encontrar la fuerza en la Palabra de Dios y los Sacramentos y a vivir el espíritu de Cristo de humildad, caridad, compasión, sensibilidad y coraje. Pedimos la intercesión de nuestra patrona, la valiente mártir Santa Inés, para que nos dé la fortaleza para proclamar alegre y caritativamente el Evangelio y el esplendor de la verdad en cada lugar público.

Sepan que oro por todos y cada uno de ustedes y sus familias y de manera especial por los sobrevivientes de abuso sexual por parte del clero. También oro para que, a través de este proceso de reestructuración, la Diócesis pueda emerger más fuerte, habiendo resuelto estos asuntos con dignidad y justicia y poniendo a todos en una mejor posición para avanzar y sanar

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Reverendísimo John O. Barres
Obispo de Rockville Centre

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION

The Collection for World Mission Sunday will take place October 18.

Please Note: for this collection, please make check payable to
The Propagation of the Faith.

Next Sunday, World Mission Sunday, we are called to be part of the Church's missionary efforts, supporting mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who provide loving service to those most in need. As Catholics around the world, here at home and in the missions, gather at the Eucharist around the table of the Lord, let us pray for the Church's worldwide missionary work and offer financial help through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for vulnerable communities throughout Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.

El próximo domingo, Domingo Mundial De Las Misiones, estamos llamados a ser parte de los esfuerzos misioneros de la Iglesia, apoyando a sacerdotes misioneros, Hermanas y Hermanos religiosos, y Catequistas Laicos que brindan un servicio amoroso a los más necesitados. Como católicos alrededor del mundo, aquí en casa y en las Misiones, se reúnen en la Eucaristía alrededor de la mesa del Señor, dejemos orar por el trabajo misionero mundial de la Iglesia y ofrecer ayuda financiera a través de la Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe para las comunidades vulnerables de Asia, África, América Latina y las Islas del Pacífico.

A Message from St. John Paul II

"I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion... The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. Certainly what happened was and remains terribly wrong. But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope... The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. To the same Father and His mercy you can with sure hope entrust your child." (Evangelium Vitae no. 99, John Paul II)
